

School holidays are starting early.

Tomorrow you will stay at home.

At home you can play outside, play games inside and spend time with your family.

Libby will let your parents know when it is time to come back to school.

Have a great break!

